Mass times for Lent

During Lent Mass will be celebrated each weekday at 7.15am and 10am.

A Prayer for Lent

Asking forgiveness.

For the times we have given up something for Lent and remained indifferent in the face of injustice and suffering.

We ask your forgiveness, good Lord.

For the times we have pushed ourselves forward at the expense of others and have forgotten Your maxim "the first will be last and the last first".

We ask your forgiveness, good Lord.

For the times we have been too arrogant to admit to wrong doing and too proud to seek the way of repentance.

We ask your forgiveness, good Lord.

For the times we have glibly talked about the need for forgiveness and reconciliation without entering into the pain of injustice.

We ask your forgiveness, good Lord.

Trocaire Box. This year's trocaire box is adorned with images of people based in Ireland with the Words "Justice Fighters" highlighting the fact that these Irish based supporters and volunteers go to incredible lengths to protect the most vulnerable people in our World. Each face represents a genuine Trocaire supporter who gives regularly of their time and support to Trocaire through a variety of different roles in parishes, including volunteering, awareness raising, and fundraising or through their pastoral and teaching capacities. This year's box is both a recognition and a celebration of ordinary people who do extraordinary things in the pursuit of Justice. They are in effect Missionaries of Mercy.
