Joint Christmas Message 2016

From Bishop John McDowell, Church of Ireland Bishop of Clogher, and Mgr Joseph McGuinness, Diocesan Administrator of Clogher

That light and love of the Son abides in the hearts of all of those born by water and the Spirit. Knowing this, we can never lose hope. Nor should we cease to support in prayer and in action all who are suffering the consequences of the violence of this world. May the Christmas season renew within us all the gifts of hope, charity and peace. May we not lie awake thinking about the past, fearful about the present or apprehensive about the future.

Instead may our hearts be touched by the peace of the child Jesus, whose hand closes round Mary's finger and with irresistible tenderness pulls down her love on him. May the tenderness of that love surround you and yours this Christmas.

+John McDowell
