World Missions Ireland would like to thank most sincerely all in the parish for the very generous contributions to last week's Mission Sunday collection. Monies raised will be an invaluable resource for the continuing work of missionaries throughout the world. For more on its work please go to www.wmi.ie

All Souls commemoration of the Faithful Departed. Belief in the resurrection of the dead is an essential part of Christian revelation. It implies a particular understanding of the ineluctable mystery of death. Death is the end of Earthly life, but not of our existence (St Ambrose) since the soul is immortal. Our lives are measured by time, in the course of which we change, grow old and as with all living beings on earth, death seems like the normal end of life (CCC, 1007). Seen from the perspective of the faith, death is the end of mans earthy pilgrimage, of the time of grace and mercy which God offers him so as to work out this earthy life in keeping with the divine plan , and to decide his ultimate destiny (CCC1013)

"In death life has changed not ended "
