A Prayer for November

Grant, O Lord, that my own heart may be touched, as yours is, at the passing of all souls into eternal life. In great confidence, I pray for all my friends and loved ones who are no longer here on this journey of faith. When I am sad at the death of those who were close to me, may my sadness be firmly supported by my faith that life is merely changed not ended, that those I love are still with me though unseen.

May You, Lord Jesus Christ, welcome me and all those for whom I pray, into eternal life at the moment pleasing to You.

Saint Therese, intercede for me.

Saint Therese, strengthen my faith.

To those who believe in thee o Lord, life is changed, not taken away

Prayer

Prayer isn't primarily a task, duty or even chore but rather as St Therese of Lisieux described "A surge of the heart , a simple look turned towards heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy" A Carer can know this "surge of the heart " whilst cleaning the house , a plumber whilst fixing a leaking tap, a priest when visiting the sick or a student busy about their studies. The presence of gadgets, devices and distractions make finding the space for moments of quiet, solitude and silence difficult and even painful. But quiet prayer is always fruitful.

Thought for Today

The Commandment of God is to love him and love people, both are so interlinked that in loving people we love God.
