Weekly Reflection.

Special Needs

When I hear today's Gospel telling us about Jesus bringing a little child before Him to rebuke His power-hungry disciples, I imagine the child be the one whom society describes today as Special Needs. The disciples like many in our own our own culture argued over power, prestige, positions of authority and were so wrapped up in their own ambition for their entitlements and their promotion, that they missed completely the significance of Jesus words.

The child with Special Needs tells us of the emptiness of possessions, and the importance of the goodness in those who care for them. In a world of distrust, fear, and hatred, they reach out in trust and love to everyone without hesitation. In a world of jealousy and envy and dread of the future, they take life one day at a time and make friendships with one embrace at a time. They do not measure themselves against the progress and prosperity of their neighbour, they simple treat all of us as equals.

Perhaps one day we will recognise the presence of God and the prophecy of Christ in our brothers and sisters with Special Needs and give to them the honour they deserve.

Fr Shane.

Recently Deceased:

A Daily Prayer. Almighty and eternal God, by your Son you promised us the forgiveness of sins, righteousness and eternal life. By your Holy Spirit lead and awaken our hearts that we daily pray for help in all afflictions, seek to be near him, and believing the promise of his Word, obtain what we pray for, and at last be saved; through your Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one true God, now and forever. Amen.
