Weekly Reflection.

"The vine and the branches"

The gospel uses the powerful imagery of the vine and its branches to describe our relationship with God. It is only when we are linked to Him that we can achieve anything of lasting value. When we are cut off from God, like branches cut away from the vine, we cease to have life in us.

We cut ourselves off from God through sin, selfishness, carelessness, and neglect. We know that if we neglect a friendship that it quickly fails. Our relationships with our family members and our close friends demand and deserve our attention and our efforts, and if we are unwilling or unable to give time to these, the chances are that they will fail. The same applies to our relationship with God. If we neglect or restrict the contact then we run the risk of withering away, drying up and losing out on the gift of life.

Unlike the imagery of the vine and the branches, we have in God, one who is willing to forgive and give us another chance – all is never lost. God is always willing to work with us again, through prayer and reconciliation. God is much more than the vine – he is our Saviour.

Fr Shane

CHANGES TO MASS SCHEDULES / HOLY COMMUNION.

Following on from a meeting of the Parish Liturgy Committee the following changes have been agreed:

The weekday evening Masses in the parish will be discontinued for the time being, except for the First Friday Mass in St Joseph's Church which will remain at 7.30pm.

When a Funeral Mass occurs on a weekday, then the 10am Mass in St. Joseph's will be put on with the Funeral Mass at the later time, usually 11am.

In the interests of health and hygiene we strongly discourage the reception of Holy Communion on the tongue. We would ask that out of concern for the well-being of the priests and Eucharistic Ministers, along with concern for other members of the congregation who wish to receive Holy Communion, that all in the congregation should receive the Eucharist on their hands.
